Welcome to VGIC Jessica!

“Hello I’m Jessica!

I am so excited to be with Vicinia Gardens as the new RD of VGIC and I am so happy to be welcomed into your loved one’s home. Some things you can find me doing are reading books and playing piano! I have a 6 yr. old boy and I am soon to be married! I can’t wait to begin this journey with you all!”

Pranks for All

April Fools' Day is your yearly get-out-of-jail-free card to act impish without making people angry. Since your friends, family and coworkers will be on high-alert April 1, you'll need to become a professional prankster to catch them off-guard. Lucky for you, we've put together a few pranks. Read on, and then get your prank on!

- ❖ Get retribution for all those years of wedgies by taking a box of candy you know they like, removing the candy and replacing it with Play-Doh you've molded into candy shapes.
- ❖ Scoop about an inch off the top of your man's stick deodorant. Replace the layer with cream cheese, molding it to look like the original product. Watch as he swabs his underarms with a milk-based food product that's sure to create a sour smell that'll draw plenty of stares (and possibly insects).
